Prices and Offers

Your wedding day is special no matter what the size of your wedding party or budget you have. Everyone wants their day to go well with the only 'hitch' being the marriage between two loving people.

Wedding catering is about more than just the food - it is about the 'theatre' of the occasion, the ambiance of the venue and the smooth running of your wedding experience. If you want a simple buffet for your guests or a full 5 course wedding feast with drinks, evening buffet and a 7 tier cake, we take responsibility to make sure we create the right environment, provide the right timing and, of course, great food, so that you enjoy your wedding day and get great value for your money.
